

GATT BRIEFING

Ten dossiers on the GATT available in English and French

"It is generally true that customs are gentler wherever people trade."

Montesquieu (De l'Esprit des Lois - 1749)

GATT Briefing is a series of ten briefings on different issues concerned with development, labour issues and GATT negotiations published between June 1990 and May 1995, written and edited by and for NGOs and distributed in 60 countries.

Each edition contains basic information about a particular topic with analyses from experts from the North and the South.

N° 1 - GATT, The Uruguay Round and Agriculture (June 1990)

N° 2 - On Trade-Related Aspects of Intellectual Property Rights (July 1990)

N° 3 - Trade in Services, the Uruguay Round and GATT (October 1990)

N° 4 - On Agriculture, Food Security and the Uruguay Round (November 1990)

N° 5-6 - On Environment, Economy and the GATT (April 1991)

N° 7 - TRIPS, TRIMS and Transnational Firms (March 1992)

N° 8 - On Consumer Positions in the Uruguay Round (December 1992)

N° 9 - Basel, Bamako and the GATT (February 1995)

N° 10 - GATT and WTO : Adjusting to new rules (May 1995)

All GATT Briefing issues are available from RONGEAD's head office in French and English Price: 3 €per publication or 25 €for all ten
