

RONGEAD - INFOS

First publication from RONGEAD, a series of seven issues on agriculture and international trade.

They contain analyses and case studies, the history of agricultural studies, the political and economic stakes linked to the exchanges that relate to their aims.

VOL 86.2

Origins and Principles of GATT

GATT and Agriculture, developing countries, trade conflicts and panels

VOL. 87.1

Agriculture in Europe

Belgium, Denmark, France, Great-Britain, Greece...

VOL 87.2

International Cassava Trade

Historical elements, exporters – transporters - buyers and firms; rules and regulations ; the Rotterdam Seminar

VOL 87.3

Solving Global Farm Trade Conflicts

Democratic Party farm proposal and its impact on the U.S. – EC Trade war; the GATT, UNCTAD...

VOL 88.1

International Soya Company

Regulations; United States; Soya and modernization in Brazil ; growth and stagnation in the European market; alternatives in the context of the big trade negotiations; impact on developing countries; cooperatives and world trade; back-up policies

VOL 88.2-3

Rice: International Trade and Self-Reliance

In Asia, in Japan, in Africa and in Latin America: International rice distribution ; final acts of the international Seminar Tokyo

Autumn 89

International Trade. Environment and Development

The GATT negotiations ; for sustainable trade ; rice culture in Japan

Spring 90

50 years of American farm policy

Environment, development, competition, the GATT ; experience and point of view of an American farm leader

RONGEAD INFOS issues are available at RONGEAD's head office